HEAVY TAX RECEIPTS AID TREASURY SHOWING

Income and Corporation Assessments Bring in $36,000,000 Last Day of Fiscal Year.

Unexpectedly large receipts from the income and corporation taxes yesterday enabled the Treasury Department to end the fiscal year in better condition than had been estimated. Officials of the Treasury had figured that not more than $18,000,000 would Several Bureaus Abolished and Others be yielded by the income and cor-poration taxes on the last day of the fiscal year. They were, therefore, sur-prised when the returns from the revenue collectors showed that $36,-000,000 had been paid in on account of these taxes on June 30, the last day of the year.

were also large collections from the war revenue tax and from ordinary internal revenue taxes on toand liquur amounting to $7,469,-000 for the day.

Seventeenth Street Extension.

Decision with respect to the proposed Seventeenth street car line extension of the Capital Traction Company will be announced today by the Public Utilities Commission. The commission has its order in readiness and it is awaiting the signature of Commissioner Oliver P. Newman. A public hearing on the merits of the proposed extension was held by the commission some time ago. The commission today also will reader its decision with respect to the application of the Washington and Maryland Railway, operating between Fourteenth and Kennedy streets northwest and Takoma Park, for a bond issue. It is likely that other matters of less importance also will be disposed of.
